Question 1(a): LLP – Sec.10AA, Sec.35AD, AMT 10 Marks

PQR LLP, a Limited Liability Partnership set up a unit in Special Economic Zone (SEZ) in the Financial Year 2010–2011 for production of washing machines. The Unit fulfills all the conditions of Section 10AA of the Income-Tax Act. During the Financial year 2013–2014, it has also set up a Warehousing Facility in a district of Tamil Nadu for storage of Agricultural Produce. It fulfills all the conditions of Section 35AD. Capital Expenditure in respect of Warehouse amounted to ₹ 75 Lakhs (including Cost of Land of ₹ 10 Lakhs). The Warehouse became operational with effect for 1st April 2014 and the expenditure of ₹ 75 Lakhs was capitalized in the books on that date.

Relevant details for the financial year 2015–2016 are as follows:

Particulars	₹
Profit of unit located on SEZ	40,00,000
Export Sales of above unit	80,00,000
Domestic Sales of above unit	20,00,000
Profit from Operation of Warehousing Facility (before considering deduction under Section 35AD)	1,05,00,000

Compute Income Tax (including AMT u/s 115JC) payable by PQR LLP for Assessment Year 2016–2017.

Solution:

Similar to Illustration in Page No.18.3 [N 12]

1. Computation of Exemption u/s 10AA & Taxable Business Income

Step 1	Computation of Total Turnover	Total Turnover = Export Sales Add Domestic Sales = ₹ 80 Lakhs Add ₹ 20 Lakhs = ₹ 100 Lakhs
Step 2	Computation of Exemption	Exemption = Profit of Business of the Undertaking × $\frac{\text{Export Turnover}}{\text{Total Turnover}}$ = ₹ 40 Lakhs × $\frac{\text{₹ 80 Lakhs}}{\text{₹ 100 Lakhs}} = ₹ 32 \text{ Lakhs}$
Step 3	Computation of Taxable Business Income	Taxable Business Income = Profits of Business Less Sec.10AA Deduction = ₹ 40 Lakhs Less ₹ 32 Lakhs = ₹ 8 Lakhs

Note: Where a deduction is claimed u/s 35AD in respect of the Specified Business, no deduction shall be allowed u/s 10AA in relation to such Specified Business. Hence, Profit from Warehousing Facility is not considered for exemption u/s 10AA.

2. Computation of Total Income & Tax Payable under Normal Provisions

Particulars	₹	₹
Profits and Gains of Business or Profession
Profits derived from SEZ Unit		8,00,000
Profits from Warehousing Facility	1,05,00,000
Less: Deduction u/s 35AD [Note]	(97,50,000)	7,50,000

Particulars	₹	₹
Gross Total Income		15,50,000
Less: Deduction under Chapter VI-A		NIL
Total Income		15,50,000
Tax on above at 30%		4,65,000
Add: EC at 2%		9,300
Add: SHEC at 1%		4,650
Net Tax Payable		4,78,950

Note: Cost of Land is not eligible for Deduction u/s 35AD. Hence, Eligible Weighted Deduction for Agricultural Warehousing is 150% on ₹ 65 Lakhs (₹ 75 Lakhs – ₹ 10 Lakhs).

3. Computation of Alternate Minimum Tax u/s 115JC

Particulars	₹
Total Income (as computed above)	15,50,000
Add: Deduction u/s 10AA & 35AD	(₹ 32 Lakhs + ₹ 97.50 Lakhs) 1,29,50,000
Less: Depreciation u/s 32 (for Warehouse @ 10%)	(₹ 65 Lakhs × 10%) (6,50,000)
Adjusted Total Income	1,38,50,000
Tax on above at 18.50%	25,62,250
Add: EC at 2%	51,245
Add: SHEC at 1%	25,623
Net Tax Payable	26,39,120

Note: Land is not a Depreciable Asset. Hence, Depreciation is not allowable.

4. Tax Payable on Total Income

Since the Tax Payable under the normal provisions of the Act is less than the AMT payable u/s 115JC, Adjusted Total Income shall be deemed to be Total Income of ABC LLP, and the Tax Payable for AY 2016–2017 is ₹ 26,39,120.

5. AMT Credit Carried Forward

Particulars	₹
AMT Credit to be carried forward u/s 115JEE – Tax liability u/s 115JC	26,39,120
Less: Tax Liability as per normal provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961	4,78,950
AMT Credit [Carried forward for Next 10 AYs]	21,60,170

Solution:

	Hint Answer	Page Reference
(i)	No. This transaction is not a Transfer u/s 47(vib).	Page 7.14, Para 7.2.5
(ii)	Conditions for Demerger are specified u/s 2(19AA).	Page 19.3, Para 19.1.6
(iii)	Receipt of Shares on Demerger is not a Transfer u/s 47(vid). Hence, Capital Gains in this case = Nil .	Page 7.14, Para 7.2.5, Point 3
(iv)	Sale of Shares of RV(P)Ltd, leads to Capital Gains. Holding Period shall be taken from FY 2001–2002. Refer Working Note below for LTCG Computation.	Page 7.14, Para 7.2.5, Point 3
(v)	Since Mr. NK sold his Shares only in March 2016 (after becoming a Shareholder in Resulting Co. in January 2016), it will not affect the tax benefits availed by both Companies.	Page 19.3, Para 19.1.6, Point 1(e)
(vi)	Since Mr. NK sold Shares of a Private Company, exemption u/s 10(38) will not apply. However, he can avail Capital Gain Exemption u/s 54EC / 54F.	Page 7.43, Para 7.4.4 & Page 7.35, Para 7.4.1

Working Note Computation of Capital Gains:

1. Cost of Acquisition of Resulting Company's Shares on Demerger [Sec.49(2C)]:

$$= \frac{\text{Cost of Acquisition of Demerged Co's Shares}}{\text{Net Worth of the Demerged Company before Demerger}} \times \text{Net Book Value of Assets transferred to Resulting Co.}$$

Net Worth of Demerged Co. = Paid up Share Capital and General Reserve as per books, before demerger. In this case, as the Net Worth of SS(P) Ltd before demerger is not given, Net Book Value before demerger is considered.

$$= ₹ 6,00,000 \times \frac{₹ 10 \text{ Crores}}{₹ 40 \text{ Crores}} = ₹ 1,50,000.$$

2. Computation of Long Term Capital Gain / (Loss):

Particulars	₹
Sale Consideration	8,00,000
Less: Indexed Cost of Acqn = Cost of Acqn $\times \frac{\text{CII of year of Transfer}}{\text{CII of year of Acquisition}} = ₹ 1,50,000 \times \frac{1081}{426}$	(3,80,634)
Long Term Capital Gain	4,19,366

Holding Period in demerged Company shall also be considered for computing Indexation Benefit.

Question 4(a): Time Limit u/s 263 4 Marks

The assessment of South West Bank Limited for Assessment Year 2011–2012 was made under Section 143(3) on 30th November 2012 allowing deduction under Section 36(1) (viiia) on account of Provision for Doubtful Debts and deduction in respect of Foreign Exchange Rate difference as claimed in the Return of Income. Subsequently, the Assessing Officer initiated re-assessment proceeding under Section 147 in respect of deduction under Section 36(1)(viii) of Special Reserve created by the Bank. The order under Section 147 was passed on 31st December 2014. Later, the Principal Commissioner after examining the record of assessment initiated revisionary proceeding under Section 263 by issue of Show Cause Notice to the Bank and passed an order under Section 263 on 31st August 2015 for disallowing in part deduction under Section 36(1)(viiia) and deduction for Foreign Exchange Rate difference. The Bank claims that the order passed by the Principal Commissioner under Section 263 is barred by limitation. Examine the correctness or otherwise of the claim of the Bank.

Solution: Similar to Illustration in Page 38.7 [M 08]

1. Principle:

- (a) U/s 263(1), the CIT can call and examine any order of the Assessing Officer, and he can revise such order if the AO's order is erroneous and prejudicial to the interest of the revenue.
- (b) U/s 263(2), the revision order shall be passed within 2 years from the end of the financial year in which the order to be revised was passed.

2. Analysis:

- (a) If the Commissioner seeks to revise the original assessment u/s 263 on other items not considered in re-assessment u/s 147, the period of limitation begins from the original assessment order and not from the re-assessment in which the items were not dealt with. Doctrine of Merger is not applicable in this case. [CIT vs Alagendran Finance Ltd 293 ITR 1 (SC)]

- (b) Assessment Order u/s 143(3) was passed on 30.11.2012, i.e. during the Financial Year 2012–2013, and that can be revised by the CIT u/s 263 within 2 years from that year, i.e. on or before 31.03.2015.
(c) In the given case, the CIT passed the order on 31.08.2015, i.e. beyond the time limit of 2 years.

3. Conclusion: Hence, in the given case, the contention of the Assessee is valid in law.

Question 4(b):Sec.2(22)(e) – Deemed Dividend

4 Marks

Mr. Santhanam holding 25% voting power in VKS Manufacturing Private Limited permitted his own land to be mortgaged to a bank for enabling the Company to obtain a Loan. Mr. Santhanam requested the Company to release the property from the mortgage. The Company failed to do so, but for retaining the benefit of Bank Loan, it gave an advance of ₹ 10 Lakhs to Mr. Santhanam, which was authorized by a resolution passed by the Board of Directors. The Company's Accumulated Profit on the date of payment of advance was ₹ 50 Lakhs. The Assessing Officer proposes to tax the amount of ₹ 10 Lakhs by invoking the provision of Section 2(22)(e). Is the proportion of the Assessing Officer correct in law?

Solution:

Refer Page 8.13, Para 8.3.2

Advances to a Shareholder to protect Co.'s Interest	Advance given to the Assessee by the Company was not in the nature of a gratuitous advance, instead it was given to protect the interest of the Company. So, the said Advance cannot be treated as Deemed Dividend in the hands of the Shareholder u/s 2(22)(e). [Pradip Kumar Malhotra (2011) 338 ITR 538 (Cal.)]
--	---

Hint Answer: In the given case, the advance given to Mr. Santhanam is not a gratuitous advance, and hence the provisions of Sec.2(22)(e) are not attracted. Hence, the contention of Assessing Officer is not correct.

Question 4(c): Partnership Firm – Allowability of Remuneration

4 Marks

X & Co. a Partnership Firm consisting of three Partners enhanced Working Partner Salary from ₹ 25,000 per month for each Partner to ₹ 50,000 per month for each Partner. The increase in Working Partner Salary was authorized by the Deed of partnership.

The Assessing Officer during the course of assessment contended that the remuneration paid to Working Partners @ ₹ 50,000 per month of each partner as excessive and applied Section 40A (2) (a) though the payment was within the statutory limit prescribed under Section 40(b)(v). Decide the correctness of action of the Assessing Officer.

Solution:

Refer Page 6.73 Para 6.4.3, Page 17.4 & Para 17.2.2

- Principle: So long as the remuneration is within ceiling limit provided in law, recourse to Sec.40A(2) cannot be taken. [Great City Manufacturing Company 33 taxmann 258]
- Analysis & Conclusion: Since the enhancement of remuneration is authorized by the Partnership Deed & is also within the statutory limit prescribed u/s 40(b)(v), the AO's contention in this case is not correct.

Question 4(d): AOP vs Individual Capacity – Inherited Property

4 Marks

Two brothers say, A and B inherited lands equally consequent to the demise of their father. Subsequently, those lands were compulsorily acquired by the State Government. Both A and B received compensation, enhanced compensation and interest on enhanced compensation. They admitted these as Income in their individual status. Now the Assessing Officer wants to assess income from compulsory acquisition of lands in the status of Association of Persons (AOP). Is the action of Assessing Officer justified in law?

Solution:

Refer Page 22.1, Para 22.1, Laxmi Pvt Ltd & Sons 316 ITR 330 (All) Case Decision.

Hint Answer: A & B should be taxed in their individual capacity, and not as AOP.

There is no pending proceeding against the Co-Operative Society at the time of receipt of letter. As a Chartered Accountant, what would be your advise to the Co-operative society regarding legality of the notice?

Solution:

Similar to Illustration in Page 32.5

1. Principle: With the prior approval of DIT / CIT, the A.O. may collect information from Banking Company or any other Department, even if no assessment is pending. [Kathiroor Service Cooperative Bank Ltd. vs. CIT (CIB) 2013 (SC)], [Ketchery Service Co-op. Bank Ltd 263 ITR 161 (Ker.)]
2. Analysis and Conclusion: In the above case, the Co-Operative Society may have to provide the information, even if no proceeding is pending, if the notice is issued with the prior approval of the DIT / CIT.

Question 5(b): Income Distribution by REIT – Tax / TDS effect.

4 Marks

A Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) received Income of ₹ 120 Lakhs from Special Purpose Vehicle Company. The break-up of the income so received is as follows:

Interest	₹ 90 Lakhs
Dividend	₹ 30 Lakhs

The REIT distributes ₹ 90 Lakhs to its unit-holders. 40% of the Unit Holders are Non-Residents.

Examine the tax implication of the above transactions in the hands of the REIT and Unit Holders including the requirement to deduct tax at source.

Solution: Refer Principles in Page 19.60, Para 19.4.3 D, Similar to Illustration in Page 19.61

1. Interest Income of ₹ 90 Lakhs from SPV:

- (a) Interest Income is not taxable in the hands of REIT, due to pass through status enjoyed by it in respect of Interest Income from SPV. [Sec.10(23FC)]. Therefore, SPV is not required to deduct TDS on Interest Payment to REIT. [Sec.194A(3)(xi)]
- (b) Interest Component of Income distributed by the REIT has the following impact–

If Payee /Unit–Holder is –	Taxable in Payee's Hands at rate of	TDS to be deducted by REIT at –	TDS Amount [See Note]
• Resident	Normal Rates of Tax	10%	(a) ₹ 90 Lakhs × 75% × 60% × 10% = ₹ 4.05 Lakhs
• Non-Corporate Non–Resident (or) Foreign Company	5%	5%	(b) ₹ 90 Lakhs × 75% × 40% × 5% = ₹ 1.35 Lakhs
Total			₹ 5.40 Lakhs

Note: The Interest Component of Income received from the REIT in the hands of each Unit–Holder would be determined proportionately. So, ₹ 90 Lakhs distributed out of ₹ 120 Lakhs Income = 75%

2. Dividend Income of ₹ 30 Lakhs from SPV:

- (a) No Tax Liability in the hands of REIT, since Dividend is subject to Dividend Distribution Tax u/s 115-O in the hands of the SPV. [Sec.115-O & Sec.10(34)]
- (b) No Tax Liability on the dividend component of Income distributed to Unit Holders by REIT. [Sec.10(23FD)]. Hence, no TDS thereon.

(i)	Yes, there is a delay in e-filing of TDS Returns / Statements. Due date for furnishing the e-TDS Returns falls on 15 th January 2016, for the quarter ending 31 st December 2015, since Madhusudan is an Individual Deductor (assumed).	Page 41.37, Para 41.4.8
(ii)	Failure to file TDS Return u/s 200(3) shall be liable for a fee of ₹ 200 per day of default, and shall not exceed the amount of tax deductible. Here, delay = 16 + 29 + 23 = 68 days.
